

nccr —→ on the move

Public Lecture Series Spring 2016

---

Transnational Perspectives and Future Prospects of Migration and Mobility

Public Lecture Series Spring 2016

Transnational Perspectives and Future Prospects of Migration and Mobility

What are the dynamics of migration and mobility beyond national or Eurocentric concerns? How might the future of migration patterns, their regulation and their economic impact look like? In order to expand current debates, internationally renowned scholars inquire into transnational perspectives and future prospects of migration and mobility.

The third Public Lecture Series of the nccr – on the move will literally be “on the move”, touring Switzerland in order to stimulate and engage with discussions on migration and mobility at different Swiss universities.

Program

Friday, 26 February 2016

10:00–11:45, University of Neuchâtel,
Espace Louis-Agassiz 1, Room RE.42

Contemporary History from a Transnational Perspective: The Case of Switzerland

Jakob Tanner, Department of History,
University of Zurich

Wednesday, 2 March 2016

18:15–19:45, University of Neuchâtel,
Rue Abram-Louis Breguet 1,
Moyen Auditoire (Lecture Hall 301)

The Well-Being of Migrant Families between Africa and Europe: Transnational Effects of National Policies

Valentina Mazzucato, Faculty of Social Sciences and Arts, Maastricht University

Thursday, 7 April 2016

18:15–19:45, University of Neuchâtel,
Rue Abram-Louis Breguet 1,
Moyen Auditoire (Lecture Hall 301)

The Politics of Measurement: Issue Definition, Framing and the UK Net Migration Target

Christina Boswell, School of Social and Political Science, University of Edinburgh

Thursday, 28 April 2016

18:15–19:45, University of Bern,
Main Building, Hochschulstrasse 4, Kuppelsaal

Prospects for International Migration Governance

Andrew Geddes, Department of Politics,
University of Sheffield

Thursday, 12 May 2016

18:15–19:45, University of Fribourg,
Main Building Miséricorde, Av. de l'Europe 20,
MIS 3117

Labor and Legal Migration in the EU – State of Play and Prospects

Yves Pascouau, European Policy Centre,
Brussels

Thursday, 26 May 2016

18:15–19:45, University of Geneva,
Uni Mail, Bd du Pont-d'Arve 40, Room MR060

Income, Population and Migration Flows in the 21st Century – a Societal Challenge for Europe

Frédéric Docquier, Institute for Economic and Social Research,
Université catholique de Louvain

About the nccr – on the move

The nccr – on the move is a national center of competence in research funded by the Swiss National Science Foundation. It seeks to stimulate the interdisciplinary field of research on migration and mobility in Switzerland and develop new perspectives on the changing migratory reality. Managed from the University of Neuchâtel, the network comprises seventeen research teams from seven universities in Switzerland: The Universities of Neuchâtel, Basel, Bern, Fribourg, Geneva, Lausanne and Lucerne. It brings together research projects from social sciences, economics and law. The nccr – on the move offers some 40 doctoral and post-doctoral fellowships to highly talented researchers in the field.