

Public Lecture Series

---

Spring 2018

22 February 2018

The Challenge of Mainstreaming Integration Governance in the Context of Superdiversity

Peter Scholten, Faculty of Social Sciences, Erasmus University Rotterdam

22 March 2018

Do Photos Help or Hinder Field Experiments of Discrimination?

Judy Rich, Portsmouth Business School, University of Portsmouth

12 April 2018

Immigration and the Election of Donald Trump: Why the Sociology of Migration Left Us Unprepared ... and Why We Shouldn't Have Been Surprised

Roger Waldinger, UCLA Center for the Study of International Migration, University of California Los Angeles

Jointly Organized with the History Institute, University of Neuchâtel

26 April 2018

Asylum Determination in Europe: Ethnographic Perspectives

Nick Gill, Geography Department, University of Exeter

24 May 2018

Hospitality Denied: The European Court of Human Rights' Take on Migrant Issues

Marie-Bénédicte Dembour, Brighton Business School, University of Brighton

The Public Lecture Series will take place:

Thursdays from 18:15 to 19:45 h

University of Neuchâtel, Rue Abram-Louis-Breguet 2, Salle R.113

Different location on Thursday, 24 May 2018:

University of Bern, UniS, Schanzenekstrasse 1, Room A 022