

Public Lecture Series

---

Spring 2019

13 December 2018

Entanglements: Passports, Migrant Workers, and the Question of Gender

Presents: Nicole Constable, Department of Anthropology, University of Pittsburgh

Discusses: Janine Dahinden, University of Neuchâtel

31 January 2019

Mobilization and Representation of the “Hidden Children” of Immigrant Workers in Switzerland (1970s–1990s)

Presents: Kristina Schulz, Department of History, University of Neuchâtel

Discusses: Gianni D’Amato, University of Neuchâtel

28 March 2019

Academic Mobility and Transnational Knowledge Brokerage through a Lens of Intersecting Social Inequalities

Presents: Kyoko Shinozaki, Department of Sociology, University of Salzburg

Discusses: Philip Balsiger, University of Neuchâtel

11 April 2019

Immigrant Naturalization in Denmark, the Netherlands and Sweden:

Origin, Destination and Life Course in Longitudinal Perspective (1994–2016)

Presents: Pieter Bevelander, Department of Global Political Studies, Malmö University

Discusses: Philippe Wanner, University of Geneva

6 June 2019

Education in the Cosmopolis: Cosmopolitanism, Globalization and Post-Critical Perspectives

Presents: Michalis Kontopodis, School of Education, University of Leeds

Discusses: Laure Kloetzer, University of Neuchâtel

The Public Lecture series takes place on Thursday from 18:15 to 19:45
University of Neuchâtel, Avenue du 1er-Mars 26, Room B32