

History Lecture Series

---

Mobility, Migration and Borders

Wednesday 25 September 2019

Postcolonial Migration Meets European Integration: Britain in Comparative Perspective

Elizabeth Buettner, University of Amsterdam

Thursday 17 October 2019

Intellectual and Historical Backgrounds of the International Refugee Regime in the Interwar Period

Davide Rodogno, Graduate Institute Geneva

Wednesday 11 March 2020

“Where Borders are the Migrants”: Territorial Rescaling and Citizenship Realignment in Contemporary Europe

Jean-Thomas Arrighi, University of Neuchâtel

Wednesday 8 April 2020

State Formation under International Supervision and the Construction of Hierarchies in National Membership: A Balkan Story

Maja Spanu, University of Cambridge

The lectures take place from 12:15 to 14:00

University of Neuchâtel, Rue Abram-Louis-Breguet 2, Room 2.310

Organizers: Kristina Schulz and Jordi Tejel (University of Neuchâtel, History Department) and Gianni D’Amato (University of Neuchâtel / nccr – on the move)

The lecture series on Migration, Mobility and Borders furthers the collaboration between the History Department and the nccr – on the move of the University of Neuchâtel. It pursues the twofold aim of showing that Migration History is both central to our understanding of the present, as well as a vibrant research field.